How to write a business plan.

Writing a business plan is a definite must when starting your business, you wouldn't build a house without a plan, right? Same for your business, no matter how big or small. The act of writing your business plan will create structure for implementation, ke organized and help you solve obstacles before they arise. John Wooden said, "If you don't have time to do it right, when will y time to do it over?" Creating a plan will not only save you time, but save you money down the road. Before you write your busi plan, you need to ask yourself this yes or no question: Am I going to be finding investors or get a bank loan to fund my busine the answer is yes, you will need to write a comprehensive and detailed business plan. If the answer is no and you plan to boo you will most likely need to create a one to two page business plan.

We've provided the outlines you need to get started on your business plan.

COMPREHENSIVE BUSINESS PLAN OUTLINE – I'm going to need investors!

TWO PAGE BUSINESS PLAN OUTLINE – I'm going to bootstrap this!

Your business plan is a work in progress. It's meant to be continually updated and is not just a document but a tool. Your busii plan should act as a guide to keep you focused on operations, sales goals, milestones, etc. Do not start your business until y created a plan.

Writing a business plan is a big task, so take your time and take it seriously. Ready go!
